TOMATO PIE, RIBS & BLUES

Featuring "THE BLUES REVIEW"

Saturday, November 2nd at 3:00pm

$15 Donation

SUNDAY BRUNCH

Sunday, November 17th at 1:00pm

$15 Donation

Join us for our last Outdoor Event until Spring 2014. We're going to repeat our popular Tomato Pie & Ribs Event coupled with "THE BLUES REVIEW"- a quartet of outstanding musicians from Raleigh - Jerry & Sean Roux (on Bass and Drums) with Paul Sheeran and Keef Debonzo (on Guitar). Visit <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=F19vygZL5a4> for a Recent Video. This is going to be something really special to experience - NOT BLUEGRASS - but incredible BLUES. The fee is $15 per person (25% is tax-deductible). Reservations required. Please bring your friends and have a great afternoon of food and music for a worthy cause.

Since all BreadWorks Events are private (for Ben Franklin Society members only), a current 2013-2014 BFS membership is required. An annual Associate Membership in the Society may be purchased at the door for $5 per person which entitles you to participate in all Society activities.

Lynch Creek Farm is located in Franklin County at 1973 Rocky Ford Road, Kittrell, NC 27544. For directions, visit www.lynchcreek.com. If you have any questions, call Bob Radcliffe at 252-767-1167.

Our Sunday Brunches are now indoors for the winter months and can comfortably seat thirty-six in our Main and Loft Dining Rooms.

Our Brunches have waited service and have sold-out quickly in the past - so call or email your reservation early. Reservations are required.

The reviews of our past Brunches have been outstanding. The fee is $15 per person of which 25% is tax-deductible. Bring your friends and introduce them to a great time for a worthy cause. Do this while listening to some relaxing background music and conversing with your friends and new acquaintances.

Ben Franklin Society NEWS

www.BenFranklinSocietyNC.org

The Ben Franklin Society is a collection of independent Research Projects.

Society Members work individually, or in collaboration with others, on Projects of their choosing.

The Society meets Quarterly, but each Project maintains its own activity schedule.

At Society Meetings, Project Leaders make presentations on their Research Project status.

All Projects are encouraged to utilize computer technology to assemble, communicate and publish their findings.

2013 Colonial Hearth Day - a Huge Success

Project Manager, Dr. Peggy McGhee

UNITED WAY of FRANKLIN COUNTY and NOVOZYMES have again this year graciously underwritten this Project. This special Educational Event was held on October 24th and 25th. Over 200 disadvantaged students from three Franklin County Elementary Schools - Louisburg, Franklinton and Laurel Mill - attended the Event delivered by nearly 100 volunteers.

Peggy's Colonial Kitchen & Herb Garden

Project Manager, Kerry Carter

Special thanks to NOVOZYMES - Community Relations Committee - for their Grant Award underwriting PHASE I of our construction project. PHASE II will continue into 2014 and add Fences, Gates and provide a published Plant Source Inventory with media coverage.

Volunteers are still needed - contact Kerry at 267-973-8143

Mural Project Initiative Underway

We are investigating the feasibility of starting a new Society Project that will orchestrate the creation of Mural Artwork at sites with historic context.

Contact Kerry Carter for more details at 267-973-8143

Our Membership Outreach Campaign began in March 2013. We are actively seeking to establish long-term, working relationships with other Organizations. Membership provides: one free meeting use of our Log Cabin each year; inclusion of your logo and website address in this Newsletter; and opens new co-fundraising opportunities. This Newsletter is presently distributed by email to over 800 individuals.

SUPPORT OUR AFFILIATED MEMBER ORGANIZATIONS

Ben Franklin Society (BFS) membership provides "blanket" Associate Member status for your organization. Associates can participate in all BFS activities. Franklin BreadWorks Dining and Entertainment Events are scheduled each month to provide a unique social environment where members can meet informally or share time with their invited guests. The Lynch Creek Farm Log Cabin and Grounds serve as BFS headquarters and venue for all BFS activities and as a full-service Business Meeting and Event Center.

Contact Bob Radcliffe to become a Society-affiliated Organization

The Ben Franklin Society is a 501(c)(3), Non-Profit, North Carolina Corporation dedicated "to performing independent and collaborative research on matters of importance to Franklin County, NC". Donations to the Society are tax-deductible. Society membership is open to everyone. Associate Membership is available for $5 per year. Franklin BreadWorks is the Society's Fund-Raising Project and is a collaboration between the Ben Franklin Society and Lynch Creek Farm. BreadWorks Dining and Entertainment Events are announced in our BreadWorks Newsletter that is distributed by e-mail and posted on our website each month. BreadWorks Events are private. Attendees must be Ben Franklin Society members. A portion of each BreadWorks Event Fee is stipulated as a donation to the Society. Event Payment is accepted by Cash, Check or most Credit and Debit Cards. No alcoholic beverages are served at BreadWorks Events, but you may B.Y.O.B. Parking is provided free-of-charge.
