BEN FRANKLIN SOCIETY
FUND-RAISING EVENTS

NOVEMBER 2015

FELLOW SOCIETY MEMBERS -

We held one event in October - our sixth and last Tomato Pie Buffet this outdoor season on Saturday the 17th and it SOLD OUT! The balance of activities in October included a private Henderson House and Garden Club Cabin luncheon, a Joel Lane Society Garden Tour, and Colonial Hearth Days for nearly 250 Franklin County Elementary School children at Peggy McGhee's Farm.

Make your November Dinner with Music Reservation now for a memorable outing at our Log Cabin. We have booked Gary Mitchell to sing and play acoustic guitar for an hour as Dinner winds-down to round out your evening.

Our new FB page found under "BreadWorks at Lynch Creek Farm Cabin" provides convenient online access to our upcoming Schedule of Events and Menus. You can also download anytime a PDF-version of the latest monthly BreadWorks Newsletter from either our www.lynchcreek.com or www.BenFranklinSocietyNC.org websites.

Our December schedule is previewed below. Three Events to choose from. Hopefully one that fits into your Holiday Calendar. Come celebrate at the Cabin this year - fireplace and all.

Our Events are open only to Ben Franklin Society Members. Associate Memberships may be purchased at the door ($15/couple/yr— paid now through 2016). Remember to B.Y.O.B. - we provide glasses, corkage and mixers. Please come and enjoy the Holiday spirit at the BreadWorks!

2015 COLONIAL HEARTH DAY REVIEW- FANTASTIC!

This year's Colonial Hearth Day event was held for the 4th year at Peggy McGhee's Farm in Franklinton. It is a Ben Franklin Society Project. Peggy conceived, managed and hosted this popular educational Franklin County School System field trip for 250 disadvantaged Elementary School Children. Local support of this Ben Franklin Society educational initiative has again been underwritten in large part by United Way and Novozymes. We have continued to expand and improve upon the Kitchen & Herb Garden learning station that has evolved to become a centerpiece of the children's experience.

Thanks again to the nearly 100 volunteers that manned the learning stations on October 22-23, 2015.

GRIST MILL SITE INVENTORY - WINTER FIELD TRIPS SCHEDULED

Bob Radcliffe and Ben Allen are gearing-up to hit the back roads of Franklin County in search of uncharted Grist Mill sites. Wednesday midday field trips are planned each month to verify researched locations for archaeological evidence. Site photography and GPS coordinates will be recorded. Our goal is to complete a "Preliminary Grist Mill Inventory of Franklin County". Reserve NOV-18, DEC-9, JAN-6&20, FEB-3&17 and MAR-2&16 - weather and work schedules permitting. Contact Bob at 252-767-1167 or bob@lynchcreek.com for details. Volunteers welcome.

UNC-TV FEATURES PEGGY'S HEARTH & GARDEN ON "ALMANAC GARDENER"

UNC-TV aired two 5-minute segments of Peggy's Hearth & Garden on the statewide "Almanac Gardener" show in June. Peggy's Colonial Kitchen Garden was aired on June 13th at noon, and her Colonial Kitchen \(Open Hearth\) was aired on June 20th at noon - thanks to Bill Lord who filmed the footage at Peggy's Farm on October 14, 2014. CIRCA MAGAZINE - BREADWORKS REVIEW

In the 2015 April-May-June Quarterly edition of CIRCA Magazine, The BreadWorks at Lynch Creek Farm was featured in the "Driveable Destinations" column that highlights venues within driving distance of Wake Forest/Wake county, NC. Special thanks to Jennifer Smart with the Wake Forest Historical Museum who penned the article after attending our BreadWorks Sunday Brunch on February 15th, 2015. The story is also available on the CIRCA Magazine website at http://www.circamagazine.com/current_issue_article07.htm

SOCIETY ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP DUES DRIVE IN DECEMBER

Our transition this year to MailChimp from our prior Microsoft ACCESS system necessitated some redesign and migration of our existing Member and Prospect databases. Society Secretary, Gloria Urbano, and I have been working to both maintain and update our records, and we plan to introduce a NEW Annual Membership Dues Drive in December. Please help us verify your Membership Status and update your Dues for 2016 at that time. Thanks for your cooperation.
