FRANKLIN COUNTY EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION INITIATIVE

We have been asked to be an “Adopt-A-School” Sponsor by the new FC Educational Foundation. Industry Sponsorships have been arranged for each of the 16 School Entities in Franklin County. The Society has “Adopted” the Early College High School (ECHS) and have begun to work closely with Principal, Erica Shoulders-Royster. This is an excellent opportunity for the Ben Franklin Society to expand its impact and visibility within Franklin County. More details to follow in our next Newsletter.

BREADWORKS SURVEY RESULTS

Thanks to everyone that completed our first Society Survey (automated by MailChimp-SurveyMonkey) about the BreadWorks. We have tabulated the results and scheduled a review of the findings by the Board of Directors at their next scheduled quarterly meeting on August 18th. Your feedback was very positive and helpful for us to make some adjustments in line with your preferences. The findings will be posted on our website.

Louisburg College opened the Tar River Center for History and Culture in 2013. The TRCHC works with local governments, private organizations, educational institutions, and individuals to develop the Upper Tar River region's historical and cultural assets, to foster economic development, and to promote knowledge of the past. Accomplishments to date include: an ongoing lecture series; a column in The Franklin Times, "Tar River Roots"; research assistance provided to the Ben Franklin Society and other organizations; the erection of a Civil War Trails Marker on the campus of Louisburg College; and the development of a walking tour brochure for the Louisburg Historic District.

In 2015 the TRCHC worked with retired school personnel to develop lesson plans pertaining to Franklin County history for use in the public schools and completed an oral history project on the desegregation of the Franklin County schools.

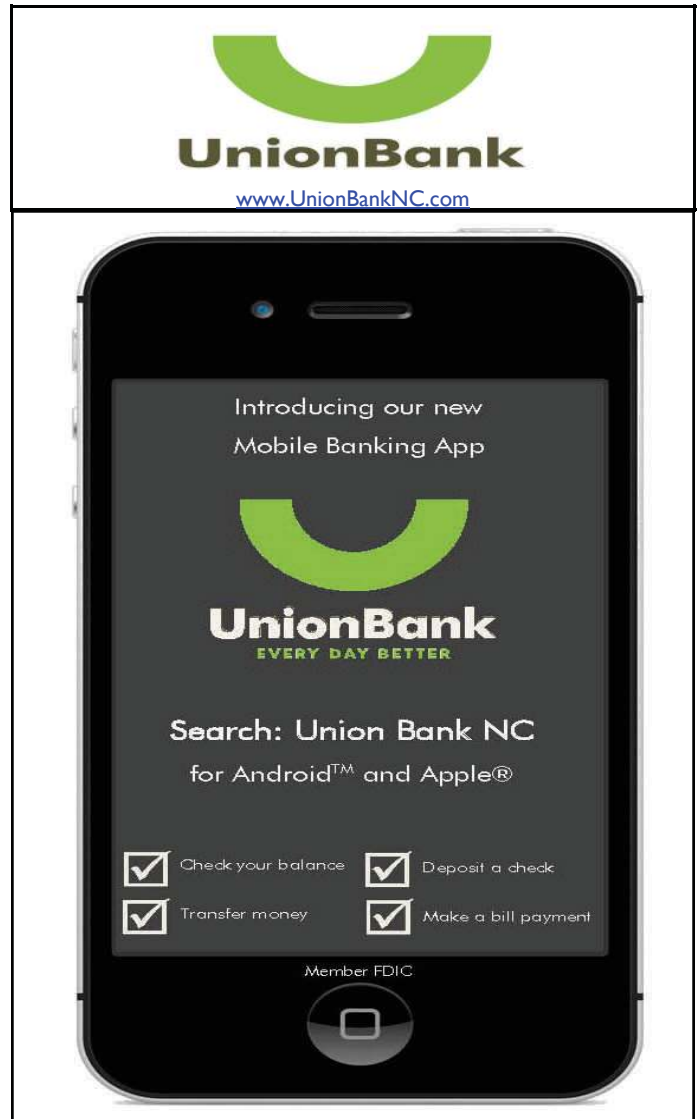

The Center's annual report, strategic plan, and other resources are available at:
